1. Copyright Release and Author Agreement

The authors of the submitted article hereby agree that the Korean Spinal Neurosurgery Society retains the copyright to all submitted materials, along with the exclusive rights to publish, transmit, sell, and distribute the content in the journal or through other media platforms.

2. Human and Animal Right

For studies involving human subjects, the author(s) confirm that the research was conducted in accordance with the ethical standards outlined in the Declaration of Helsinki and the guidelines of both domestic and international committees overseeing human experimentation. If any concerns arise regarding adherence to these standards, the author(s) will provide a detailed explanation. For studies involving animal experimentation, the author(s) confirm that all procedures followed domestic and international guidelines for the care and use of laboratory animals.

3. Disclosure of Conflict of Interest

The author(s) of this journal have fully disclosed any potential conflicts of interest, including research funding, consultancy fees, stock ownership, or relevant relationships with individuals involved in the review process. This information has been recorded in the submitted manuscript.

List the names of all authors in the correct order.
